

LARS JACOBSEN

N- 4816 KOLBJØRNSVIK
NORWAY

OBJECTIVE/ SPECIFIC SKILLS

Project leader “prehospital ultrasound feasibility project in Norwegian Helicopter emergency service”, implementing handheld ultrasound, Sponsored by the Norwegian Air ambulance foundation. 2011-2016

PhD candidate grant on thesis “Prehospital ultrasound”

Course faculty member on several ultrasound courses.

External consulting member SMARTSCAN project

EDUCATION

2014: Diploma of International Mountain medicine

2009: Senior anesthesiologist,

2004: Authorized physician /MD

2002-2004: Internship Ringerike Hospital

1996-2002: Medical studies, Jagiellonian University, Krakow, Poland

WORK EXPERIENCE

Since 2010: Head of department, Air ambulance services Sørlandet Hospital Thrust. (Clinical and administrative)

January 2010 - April 2010: Consultant anesthesiologist,
Stavanger University Hospital

2010 - today. Consultant anesthesiologist, Air Ambulance
& Anesthesia / ICU dpt, Southern Norway Hospital trust, Arendal

November 2009-January 2010: Consultant, Anaesthesia
and Intensive Care, Vestre Viken Hospital trust

May 2009 - November 2009: Physician, Emergency
Medicine, Medical ICU unit Oslo University Hospital
,Ullevål,.

October 2008 - May 2009: Physician, Anaesthesia and
Intensive Care, Buskerud HF / VVHF

January 2007-April 2008: Physician, Anesthesia and Intensive Care, St. Olav University Hospital.

September 2006 - January 2007: Physician dept.
Pulmonology St. Olav University Hospital, Trondheim.

August 2004 - September 2006: Physician, Anesthesia and ICU department Buskerud Hospital HF

February 2004 to September 2006: consulting M.D. part time at Ringerike Prison, Tyristrand

February 2004 - August 2004: Internship Ringerike
Medical Center

April 2003 - January 2005: Physician, Ringerike
intermunicipal outpatient clinic

February 2003 - February 2004: Internship Ringerike
Hospital

Fall 2002: Municipal doctor Substitute Åmli municipal / medical center

ONGOING EDUCATION

- PhD studies at the University of Oslo

REFERENCES

References and letters of recommendation available on request.